Salmagundi Club

FORTY-SEVEN FIFTH AVENUE

NEW YORK, 3, N. Y.

THE SALMAGUNDI CLUB

The Salmagundi Club is famous for its high standards of artistic accomplishment, for its distinguished members, and for its good fellowship. It is the oldest art organization in the United States and perhaps in the world that not only provides exhibition facilities for its members but also serves as a place where professional artists and men of artistic interest may meet to their mutual pleasure and inspiration. From the start, close association of artists and lay members welded the club into a finely balanced family, and that bond of friendship among the members has continued through the years.

The Salmagundi Club originated as a spontaneous expression of this psychological need of artists and intellectual men, when a group of painters, sculptors, writers and their friends got together to form a sketch group at the studio of Jonathan Hartley at 506 Broadway in the fall of 1870.

In the course of its existence, the club has had many homes. In 1893, it took possession of the house at 14 West 12th Street, where it remained for some twenty years, gaining in stature and importance. During 1917, the Salmagundi Club purchased its present location, formerly the imposing home of William G. Park. The house had been built originally for Irad Hawley in 1854 (New York City Directory 1855-1856).

The generosity and loyalty of the members, through contributions of money and gifts of paintings which were sold at auction, enabled the club to purchase this home.

Salmagundians take much pride in the possession of their unique clubhouse, which still retains the quiet dignity and charm of a bygone era.

Today, Salmagundians, without impairing the character of its fine premises, provides every convenience and comfort for its members. These include a well appointed dining room and grill, a kitchen that has been completely modernized with the latest up-to-date equipment, a cocktail lounge, a fine library, a billiard room, a spacious gallery where the club hold its exhibitions and entertainments, a card room—which is used from time to time by the members for private luncheon or dinner parties, and fourteen bedrooms. Some of the members live at the club the year round. Many of the club's lay members are business men of the lower Fifth Avenue area, and in addition to indulging their interest in the world of art, they find that Salmagundi is a pleasing and not too expensive lunch club. For the past several years the cocktail lounge and the dining room have been made available to the ladies on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and the arrangement has been very well received. The club has kept pace with the times by including a television set.

The activities of the club during the year are many. Exhibitions of artist members' work are shown in all media, and prizes are awarded for outstanding work.

There are seven (7) important exhibitions held each season in the spacious galleries of the Salmagundi Club. Here the artists have the opportunity of exhibiting to the public in all mediums.

The exhibitions are well advertised and publicised and an experienced attendant is in charge of sales, which have been good, especially in smaller sized canvases. The Thumb Box Painting Exhibition usually sells about 40 canvases each year.

Many important and generous prizes are awarded at each exhibition, including purchase prizes in which pictures go to important Art Museums and other Institutions, also many private collections.

The annual auction sale of pictures is an interesting feature bringing revenue to both the club and the artist. All exhibitions are open to the public. Lectures, demonstrations by artist members, and various forms of educational and entertaining evenings are given throughout the year, including a series of Special "Ladies Nights." Throughout the year an enthusiastic sketch class is held on Monday evenings for both artist and lay members.

The entertainment committee of the club perennially does a fine job, and regularly it calls on groups of artist members to execute appropriate decorations on the gallery walls for special events. The Get-together dinner each fall, the Get-away party late each spring, the Christmas tree party with the singing of carols by members, and the New Year's Eve party, are all gala events. Here the artists are in their own element and many a masterpiece of decorative art has been painstakingly wrought for this one night to be destroyed thereafter. This loyal and unselfish spirit is evinced throughout the multitude of the club's activities, from the carefully selected and hung exhibitions to the details of the club's support and financial structure.

Through the medium of a bulletin, which is mailed periodically, Salmagundians are kept informed about events past, events to come, and items of interest about the club and its members. The full membership is called for a club meeting on the first Friday of each month, October through May, and between meetings the club's destinies are guided by the club President and the executive committee.

No one ever questions the Salmagundi Club's ethical and artistic standards but of recent years it has been accused of conservatism. If being conservative means the ability to weigh in relationship to a proud past then the Salmagundi is justly so. It is this unconscious attitude to protect what has proved to be good that is characteristic of the Club. There are always two schools of thought in the Salmagundi, those desirous of maintaining the solid traditions and auras of the past and those who feel that it is the duty of the artist to open new frontiers. This healthy equilibrium is perhaps the most obvious manifestation of the club's virile spirit. Sometimes the Salmagundi is to the forefront on the American Art scene, and at other times it is crowded into the background by more vociferous voices, but always it is there, and always it is important, and always it comes back. How could it be otherwise when it plays such an important part in the lives of so many artists and genuine art lovers? How can it be otherwise when it fills such a human need in the lives of so many men who reach for the stars?

Throughout its history the Salmagundi Club's roster has included some of America's most distinguished citizens, to name a few—Edwin A. Abbey, William M. Chase, John La Farge, Montague Glass, George A. Hearn, George Inness, Joseph Isidor, J. Francis Murphy, Tony Pastor, Howard Pyle, Henry Ranger, J. Sanford Saltus, William H. Shelton, F. Hopkinson Smith, Samuel T. Shaw, Louis C. Tiffany, Alexander J. Wall, Stanford White, Anders Zorn, etc.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERS

Orders and Classes of Membership

SECTION 1. The Artist Membership and the Lay Membership of the Club shall constitute two orders, within each of which there shall be four classes of membership, namely, Resident, Non-Resident, Life, and Honorary.

SECTION 2. Artist Membership shall be of two classes, Artist Member and Associate Artist Member. Subject to the provisions of Section 5 and 9 of Article II of these By-Laws, it shall be the duty of the Art Committee to certify each candidate for Artist Membership to the Committee on Admissions as eligible for admission to the class to which the quality of his work in the judgment of the Art Committee entitles him, and he may be elected only to that class. Artist Members and Associate Artist Members shall be separately enrolled on the Club's records but shall not be separately designated in any list of members posted in the Clubhouse or published by the Club in its Yearbook or otherwise. The Art Committee may in its discretion, by a vote of five-sevenths of its members, determine that a member who has been elected as an Associate Artist Member shall thenceforth be enrolled as an Artist Member, or that a lay member who satisfies the Art Committee that he possesses proper qualifications shall be enrolled as an Associate Artist or an Artist Member. All such changes of classification of members shall be reported by the Art Committee at the regular meeting of the Club on the first Friday in April and posted for at least thirty days thereafter.

Exhibitions and Exhibitors.—Only the works of members who have been elected to Artist Membership or enrolled therein by certification of the Art Committee shall be accepted for any of the art exhibitions of the Club. Each Artist Member shall have the right to be represented in any exhibition of the Club by at least one work, except that Artist Members the major part of whose work is in branches of the Fine Arts other than painting shall not have the right to be represented in exhibitions of paintings but may be granted the privilege by the Art Committee. An Associate Artist Member may exhibit his work in any exhibition, but only with the approval of the Art Committee.

Resident Members

SECTION 3. Resident members shall be those residing within a radius of fifty miles from the City Hall of New York for an aggregate period of three months or more in any Club year, excepting only active officers of the Regular Army and the Navy, who shall be classed as non-resident members. Any member having a place of business in New York City shall be classed as a resident member. A resident member desiring transfer to non-resident membership by reason of removal from the limits specified shall make written application for such transfer to the Executive Committee. The resident membership shall be limited to six hundred.

Non-Resident Members

SECTION 4. Non-resident members shall be those residing and maintaining places of business outside the limits prescribed for resident membership in Section 3 of this Article. A non-resident member who moves within the said limits shall thereupon automatically become a resident member and shall be required to pay thereafter the dues of a resident member; and if he shall not previously have qualified as a resident member by the payment of the entrance fee required of resident members of the order to which he was elected, he shall pay an additional entrance fee as provided in Section 6 of Article II of these By-Laws. Non-resident members shall not be eligible for election to any office or Committee of the Club, shall have not vote in meetings of the Club, and shall possess no equity in the Club's property.

Life Members

SECTION 5. Any LayMember of at least five year's standing may become a Life Member upon the approval of his application for Life Membership by the Committee on Admissions after it has been posted for at least thirty days and upon payment of an amount equal to ten times the annual dues prescribed for Resident Lay Members at the time of such approval.

Any member of at least fifteen years' standing in either class of Artist Membership defined in Section 2 of this Article may become a Life Member upon approval of his application for Life Membership by the Committee on Admissions after it has been posted for at least thirty days and upon the payment of an amount equal to ten times the annual dues prescribed for a Resident Artist Member at the time of such approval.

Life members shall be exempt from the payment of dues, but shall remain subject to all rules of the Club, and to the penalties for violation thereof provided in Sections 5 and 6 of Article IV, and Sections 1 and 3 of Article V of these By-Laws.

All sums paid under this Section shall be placed in a Reserve Fund to be held, invested, and administered by the Finance Committee as provided in Section 13 of Article II of these By-Laws.

Honorary Members

SECTION 6. Honorary membership may be conferred on any person for whom the Club wishes to express its respect. Each proposal for honorary membership must be made over the signature of at least five members, and it must be approved by unanimous vote at a regular meeting of the Club after having been posted for at least thirty days. Honorary membership shall not involve the payment of dues. Honorary members shall not be eligible for election to any office or Committee of the Club, shall have no vote in meetings of the Club, and shall possess no equity in the Club's property, except that honorary members who shall have been resident members at the time of their election to honorary membership shall retain thereafter all the privileges of resident membership.

Leave of Absence

SECTION 7. Any member desiring to be relieved from active membership because of absence from the continental limits of the United States for a period of at least one year may be granted leave of absence with remission of regular dues by the Executive Committee upon written application stating the probable duration of his absence. During the period of such absence he shall report his address to the Club at least once a year, and he shall be subject to dues of five dollars a year until the time of his return.

Resident members on leave of absence shall not be included within the limit of resident membership specified in Section 3 of this Article, or counted in regulating the excess of Artist Membership over Lay Membership prescribed in Article IV of the Constitution.

ARTICLE IV

DUES AND PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS

Dues

SECTION 1. The annual dues of resident members shall be one hundred dollars for Lay Members, fifty-five dollars for Artist members over the age of thirty years, thirty dollars for Artist members of the ages of twenty-six to thirty years, inclusive, and twenty dollars for Artist members of the ages of twenty-one to twenty-five years, inclusive, the dues in each case being payable quarterly in advance. The annual dues of non-resident members shall be fifty dollars for Lay members and twenty-five dollars for Artist members, payable semi-annually in advance.

Payment of Dues

SECTION 2. The Club year shall commence on the first day of April. The quarterly dues of resident members shall be payable in advance on April first, July first, October first, and January first. The semi-annual dues of non-resident members shall be payable in advance on April first and October first. A member elected or reinstated in any month other than those in which the quarterly or semi-annual dues of his class are payable shall pay dues for the current period proportionate to the remainder of the period.

SECTION 3. Penalty for Non-Payment.— If the quarterly or semi-annual dues of a member be not paid within thirty days of the date on which they are due, the House Committee shall post the name of such delinquent member and the amount of his unpaid dues on the bulletin board of the Club; the House Committee shall notify the delinquent member in writing of such posting, with a warning that if his dues remain unpaid at the end of fifteen days from the date of such notice, the circumstances must be reported to the Executive Committee, who may in their discretion, suspend such delinquent member or drop him from membership.

Payment of Indebtedness

SECTION 4. Except as provided in Section 6 of this Article, indebtedness of members of the Club other than for annual dues shall be payable on the first day of the month after it is contracted, on which day, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, a bill therefor shall be rendered to the members.

SECTION 5. Penalty for Non-Payment.— If such indebtedness be not paid on or before the first day of the following month, unless it shall amount to less than five dollars, with the dues of the member fully paid, the House Committee shall notify the delinquent member in writing that his name and the amount of his indebtedness shall be posted on the bulletin board of the Club if his indebtedness remains unpaid at the end of ten days from the date of such notice, and in the event of non-payment at the expiration of this period, such posting shall be made by the House Committee. Thereafter and until his indebtedness shall be paid in full, the House Committee may, in their discretion, refuse such delinquent member further credit or supplies, and the House Committee shall report the circumstances to the Executive Committee, who may, in their discretion, suspend the delinquent member or drop him from membership. Upon special application made in writing by any delinquent member, showing good cause therefor, the Executive Committee may extend the time for payment of his indebtedness upon such terms as may, in their discretion, be specified, and may instruct the House Committee meanwhile to omit the posting and to maintain the credit of such delinquent member.

Credit of Members

SECTION 6. The Executive Committee shall have full power to withhold credit from any member at any time, and to extend the credit of any member at any time. Whenever the indebtedness of a member other than for dues reaches the sum of fifty dollars, the House Committee may send him a bill therefor accompanied by a demand for payment within five days of the date of such bill; and if it be not paid within this period, the House Committee may in their discretion suspend the credit of the member until the amount of his indebtedness shall be paid in full.

Receipt and Deposit of Funds

SECTION 7. All sums due the Club shall be paid at the office of the Club; and all sums received shall be deposited to the credit of the Salmagundi Club in such bank or trust company as may be designated by the Executive Committee, subject to the order of the Treasurer.

Resignation of Members.

SECTION 8. A member whose dues and other indebtedness to the Club are fully paid may withdraw at any time, but he must present his resignation in writing to the Corresponding Secretary before the expiration of the quarterly or semi-annual period for which his dues are paid, otherwise he shall be liable for dues for the succeeding period. Except as provided in Section 2 of Article III of the Constitution, the Executive Committee shall not accept the resignation of a member so long as any portion of his indebtedness to the Club remains unpaid, and no refund of dues shall be made by reason of the withdrawal of a member before the expiration of a quarterly or semi-annual period.

Reinstatement of Members

SECTION 9. Members dropped or expelled from membership cannot be reinstated, but must be again proposed for membership and elected as provided in Sections 2 to 8 of Article II of these By-Laws; but a member who has resigned in good standing as provided in Section 8 of this Article may be reinstated by the Executive Committee without payment of entrance fee provided his application is approved by the Committee on Admissions after having been posted for not less than thirty days.

Visitors

SECTION 10. A member in good standing may extend the privileges of the Club for one day to a person residing within fifty miles of the City Hall of New York, provided the member personally introduce such visitor and record his name and residence in a book which shall be maintained in a conspicuous place for that purpose. Such visitor shall not be again introduced by any member before the expiration of one month.

At the request of a member in good standing, any member of the Executive Committee may issue to a person not residing within fifty miles of the City Hall of New York a card of invitation entitling him to the privileges of the Club for two weeks, subject to renewal for a further period of two weeks in the discretion of the Executive Committee. The name and residence of such visitor shall be recorded in the visitors' book, and shall also be posted in a conspicuous place, together with the name of the member introducing him and the date on which his card of invitation became effective. Such visitor shall not be again introduced by any member within three months of the expiration of the period of his invitation.

A member who introduces a visitor in the Club shall be responsible for any indebtedness incurred by him.

The Executive Committee may offer the privileges of the Club to any stranger of distinction, and may, for cause, cancel, revoke, or extend any invitation issued by themselves or by a member.

A visitor shall not have the privilege of introducing guests.

List of Members

SECTION 11. A complete list of the members of the Club shall be kept posted in a conspicuous place, and it shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary to enter the names of new members on the said list immediately after they qualify and to remove the names of members deceased or resigned or dropped from membership. In such posted list of members, and in any list published by the Club in its Yearbook or otherwise, the names of the Artist Membership shall be designated by a star.

Members' Exhibitions

SECTION 12. A member or group of members who desire to hold a private exhibition of their art work in the galleries of the Club must obtain written permission therefor from the Art Committee upon such terms as may be specified by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V

DISCIPLINE

Charges against Members

SECTION 1. Any member guilty of conduct which endangers or which may endanger the welfare, interest, character, or reputation of the Club shall forfeit thereby his right to membership. All charges against members shall be made in writing to the Executive Committee, who shall have power, after such investigation as they may direct, to admonish, suspend, or expel an offending member as provided in Section 2 of this Article.

Suspension and Expulsion of Members

SECTION 2. The Executive Committee may, after affording an accused member an opportunity to be heard, by two-thirds vote of its members present at any meeting, suspend him from the use of the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding six months with or without remission of dues, or by a two-thirds vote of all its members expel him from membership.

Appeals.—Upon written request of a person who has been suspended or expelled from membership, accompanied by a demand subscribed by five resident members, the President shall call a special meeting of the Club to hear an appeal from the decision of the Executive Committee. At such meeting the action of the Executive Committee may be modified or annulled by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting, but the quorum necessary for that purpose shall be forty resident members.

Termination of membership from any cause whatever shall operate as a release and termination of all right, title, and interest in the property and assets of the Club.

Gambling

SECTION 3. Betting or gambling in the Clubhouse is strictly prohibited.

ARTICLE VI

AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1. These By-Laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at any regular meeting, but the quorum necessary for that purpose shall be forty resident members, and no proposed amendment shall be acted upon less it shall have been offered at a previous meeting and posted for at least one month.

HOUSE RULES

Newly elected candidates are not entitled to the privileges of the Club until they have qualified by paying the entrance fee and dues.

Reinstated members are not entitled to the privileges of the Club until they have paid the dues.

Members in Arrears

Members posted for arrears of either dues or house accounts may be denied further supplies, and no member who is suspended may be entertained in any manner in the Clubhouse by any other member.

The Clubhouse is open on week-days between the hours of 8 a.m. and 1 a.m.; on Sundays and holidays, between the hours of 9 a.m. and midnight.

On week-days breakfast will be served between the hours of 8 and 9:30 a.m.; luncheon, between the hours of 12 m. and 2 p.m.; dinner, between the hours of 6 and 8 p.m.

The hospitality of the Club may not be extended to persons under 18 years of age.

Gratuities and Tips

No member or visitor shall be allowed to give any money or gratuity to any servant or employee of the Club.

No book or paper may be removed from the library except by special arrangement with the Library Committee.

Private Dinners

Indebtedness for private dinners or luncheons must be paid promptly after presentation of bills.
